Good and Gracious God, You have been so good to us. We come to You in our great need, trusting in Your Divine Mercy. We ask St. Joseph, patron of Canada and our patroness, Our Lady of Good Counsel to intercede on our behalf, to move the hearts of parliamentarians, to improve and initiate good palliative care, for those persons nearing the end of their lives across our great country. Heavenly Father, bless those responsible for providing health care in our country. May they continue to serve with a generous heart –Inspired by the merciful example of the Great Physician –Our saviour himself. We make all our prayers through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your son, who lives and reigns with You, In the Unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.

ALPHA CONNECT GROUPS AT ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL

WE VALUE RELATIONSHIPS

Connect Groups are where ALPHA alumni meet to build lasting friendships and to grow spiritually! Connect Groups are small to mid-size groups (around 10-12 people) that retain the key elements of ALPHA such as eating a meal together, praying together and studying our faith together. The groups meet once a month in the homes of parishioners to study faith formation programs approved by Father Shawn.

Three Connect Groups have already started and another two Connect Groups are being formed. If you have taken the ALPHA course and would like to join a Connect Group or wish like to learn more about ALPHA Connect Groups contact: Ann Lyng, 613-546-5521 Ext 5, alyng@cogeco.ca

MEMBERS OF CONNECT GROUPS SAY THE FOLLOWING:

"It's such a wonderful feeling to be with others of the same faith and to feel safe to express concerns or pose questions which have surfaced along my spiritual journey. This is my first Connect Group and I highly recommend that if you have an opportunity to participate in one, jump at the chance." Kerry Clifford

"These small groups are a great way to form new friendships and at the same time to grow closer to Christ. I hesitated about joining a Connect group but I am so glad that I did. The people in my group have become like family to me, my faith is deepening and I feel more "connected" to my parish community."

DISCIPLESHIP GROUPS

Discipleship Groups are small groups that are focused on learning content such as Bible studies and adult faith formation programs. The Groups, composed of 4 to 8 people, meet for a definite period of time, usually six weeks, to study a specific program. They follow the same format as ALPHA; meeting weekly in a private home to pray, share a meal together, watch a video series and discuss the content. However, unlike Connect Groups, which are intended to meet monthly on a continual basis, Discipleship Groups dissolve once their specific study program is completed. Members are then able to join or form another Discipleship Group to explore a different study program. The Parish has a wide variety of materials available for use. If you have attended ALPHA and are interested in forming or joining a Discipleship Group contact: Ann Lyng, 613-546-5521 Ext. 5, alyng@cogeco.ca

MORE OFFERTORY GIFT BEARERS NEEDED!

As Gift Bearers, you represent the entire parish as we return to God a small part of the many blessings that He has given to us. The unleavened Bread and Wine that you carry will be consecrated to become the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. Normally two Gift Bearers are needed for each Mass. This Ministry is open to anyone and you are invited to be part of this beautiful ministry. Don't be shy! Please volunteer if asked or ask the Head Usher if you can serve as the Gift Bearers for that Mass. Remember that it is a privilege and honour to represent the assembly as you present the gifts!

From an Easter sermon by Saint Leo the Great, pope

Christ lives in his Church

My dear brethren, there is no doubt that the Son of God took our human nature into so close a union with himself that one and the same Christ is present, not only in the firstborn of all creation, but in all his saints as well. The head cannot be separated from the members, nor the members from the head. Not in this life, it is true, but only in eternity will God be all in all, yet even now he dwells, whole and undivided, in his temple the Church. Such was his promise to us when he said: See, I am with you always, even to the end of the world.

And so all that the Son of God did and taught for the world's reconciliation is not for us simply a matter of past history. Here and now we experience his power at work among us. Born of a virgin mother by the action of the Holy Spirit, Christ keeps his Church spotless and makes her fruitful by the inspiration of the same Spirit. In baptismal regeneration she brings forth children for God beyond all numbering. These are the sons of whom it is written: They are born not of blood, nor of the desire of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

In Christ Abraham's posterity is blessed, because in him the whole world receives the adoption of sons, and in him the patriarch becomes the father of all nations through the birth, not from human stock but by faith, of the descendants that were promised to him. From every nation on earth, without exception, Christ forms a single flock of those he has sanctified, daily fulfilling the promise he once made: I have other sheep, not of this fold, whom it is also ordained that I shall lead; and there shall be one flock and one shepherd.

Although it was primarily to Peter that he said: Feed my sheep, yet the one Lord guides all the pastors in the discharge of their office and leads to rich and fertile pastures all those who come to the rock. There is no counting the sheep who are nourished with his abundant love, and who are prepared to lay down their lives for the sake of the good shepherd who died for them.

But it is not only the martyrs who share in his passion by their glorious courage; the same is true, by faith, of all who are reborn through baptism. That is why we are to celebrate the Lord's paschal sacrifice with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. The leaven of our former malice is thrown out, and a new creature is filled and inebriated with the Lord himself. For the effect of our sharing in the body and blood of Christ is to change us into what we receive. As we have died with him, and have been buried and raised to life with him, so we bear him within us, both in body and in spirit, in everything we do.
