SEARCHING FOR AND MAINTAINING PEACE by FATHER JACQUES PHILIPPE

We live in a day and age characterized by an extraordinary amount of agitation and lack of peace. This tendency manifests itself in our spiritual as well as our secular life. In our search for God and holiness, in our service to our neighbor, a kind of restlessness and anxiety take the place of the confidence and peace which ought to be ours. What must we do to overcome the moments of fear and distress which assail us all too often in our lives? How can we learn to place all our confidence in God and abandon ourselves into his loving care? This is what is taught in this simple, yet profound little treatise on peace of heart. Taking concrete examples from our everyday life, the author invites us to respond in a Gospel fashion to the upsetting situations we must all confront. Since peace of heart is a pure gift of God, it is something we should seek, pursue and ask him for continually. This book and the study of it is here to help us in that pursuit. This study will be led by Father Shawn. PLEASE NOTE DATE CHANGES: It will be offered Thursdays, 7-9 pm and repeated Fridays, 2 – 4 pm beginning Nov. 14/15 and continue for four sessions to Dec. 5/6. To register and order your book please contact Ann Lyng at alyng@cocego.ca

We'll explore what the Church has to say about liturgical formation using documents such as the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, the Code of Canon Law, the General Directory for Catechesis, Pope Benedict's post-synodal apostolic exhortation, Sacramentum Caritatis, and Pope Francis's Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium. The vision that emerges helps address the challenge of consistency in liturgical formation.

- ii) Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (ministers at Mass as well as Pastoral Care ministers)
Understanding the Communion Rite.
- iii) Ministers of music (Cantors, choir directors, psalmists, instrumentalists)- lending your voice to the Lord.
