This year's National March For Life will take place at noon on Thursday, May 12th, 2016 on Parliament Hill, Ottawa, Canada. Join pro-life people from across Canada as we pay respect and draw attention to the millions of Canadians killed by abortion since 1969.

Almost 40 years ago on May 14, 1969 an omnibus bill was passed in Canadian Parliament which legalized abortion. Today, an unborn baby can be killed for any reason, at any time, up until the moment of birth. The scientific fact that human life begins at conception is ignored by politicians. The humanity of unborn babies is unjustly denied.

This annual March is important because we:

- a) Witness to policy makers in Ottawa, the nation's capital.
- b) Educate attendees with presentations by the world's best pro-life speakers.
- c) Witness to the mainstream media who still tries to pretend that Canadians don't care about abortion.
- d) Connect with people who think like you. Youth especially love this aspect.

Growing Younger! Recent years have seen youth take over as the biggest percentage of attendees. They bring tremendous energy and excitement to the March. Encourage your parish youth, high schools and college students to come and march with us, for Life!
