St. Teresa of Calcutta

Mother Teresa will be canonized this Sunday, September 4, 2016

God, our loving Father, You have exalted the beauty of Your love for us in the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta.

She showed the poor and the suffering, the weak and the lonely how much You long to love them – how in their poverty and pain You thirst for them through Jesus, Your Son. It was He, hidden in the poor, whom she served as her Lord and loved as her Spouse.

May her example encourage us to recognize Jesus in our brothers and sisters in need, and reach out to them with ardor and joy, kindness and compassion, as she did.

May her work here continue as we ask you, Dear Father, that through her intercession your grace will touch our weakness and heal our wounds. We ask this favour through the intercession of your handmaid, St. Teresa of Calcutta (mention the special favour prayed for) We are grateful that the beauty of her life, holiness and message has been lifted up by the Church, even as she lifted the beauty of your Son's presence in the precious disguise of the poor. Amen

ALPHA IS FOR YOU AND YOU ARE INVITED!

THE ARCHBISHOP'S CHARITY DINNER (see next page for poster)

As you are well aware throughout the Roman Catholic world Pope Francis has declared a Jubilee of Mercy; a year beginning last December 8th, 2015 and concluding November 24th, 2016. Throughout this special year of grace Pope Francis has encouraged us to focus on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy as the concrete means of the living out of our faith in Jesus Christ. The Corporal Works of Mercy are directed towards relieving the physical suffering of those in need by feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, giving shelter to the homeless, visiting the sick, visiting the imprisoned and burying the dead.

In this Jubilee of Mercy, Archbishop O'Brien, in a special way would like to highlight the corporal work of mercy of feeding the hungry through a fundraising charity dinner be held at the Ambassador Hotel, Kingston, on November 17, 2016 beginning with a cocktail hour at 5:30 pm, dinner at 6:30 pm and entertainment concluding by 9:00 pm. The tickets for this event are $125 each, $75 of which are tax deductible. The proceeds of this dinner will be distributed among food banks in the Archdiocese of Kingston to assist them in their work of feeding the hungry. The Archdiocese of Kingston covers a territory from Trenton in the West to Morrisburg in the East and Ormsby, Lanark and Carleton Place in the North.

Archbishop O'Brien would like to invite each one of you to assist him in helping those in need. If you are interested in participating or would like more information and/or a registration form sent to you please contact Father Shawn at 613-546-5521 ext 4 or fathershawnjhughes@gmail.com. I am hoping we would have enough generosity to fill at least two tables from St. Mary's.

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON'S ANNUAL: RED MASS

Attention all Judges, lawyers, and all who work in the Justice system. On Thursday, September 22, 2016, Archbishop O'Brien will be celebrating the Red Mass at 7 pm in St Mary's Cathedral (Johnson St at Clergy) with a wine and cheese reception to follow in St. Mary's Parish Centre. The Red Mass, which is dedicated particularly to those in the legal profession (lawyers, judges, clerks, court reporters, court security officers, legal assistants, receptionists, and students and professors of the Faculty of Law), derives its name from the colour of the vestments worn by the celebrant to symbolize the tongues of fire of the Holy Spirit and martyrdom and is generally celebrated contemporaneously with the opening of the courts, which commences the judicial year. The tradition of the Red Mass was begun by Pope Innocent IV in 1243 for the Ecclesial Judicial Court asking the Invocation of the Holy Spirit as a source of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude and strength for the coming term of court. St. Thomas More is the patron saint of Lawyers. All who work in the justice system are most welcome and encouraged to attend the event. Everyone else is very welcome as well. Wine and cheese reception following in St. Mary's Parish Centre. If you require further information please contact Christina Rorabeck at 613-545-9896 or christina@blaisrorabeck.com or Father Shawn.

The Spirituality of Mother Teresa by Fr. John A. Hardon, S.J. (adapted)

Given the magnitude of the subject, suppose I prefix each of my half-dozen observations on her spiritual life with a simple sentence, and then briefly explain how she lived out this feature of her life.

Deep Faith in the Real Presence. This was the bedrock of Mother Teresa's spiritual life. She believed, without a shadow of a doubt, that Jesus Christ is really, truly, and substantially present in the Blessed Sacrament. So deep was this faith that she declared, and must have repeated hundreds of times, "I make a holy hour every day in the presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Our holy hour is our daily family prayer where we get together and pray the Rosary the first half-hour and the second half-hour in silence. Our adoration has doubled the number of our vocations."

Deep Apostolic Love for the Poor. Mother Teresa loved poor people. I would say the poorer they were, the more she loved them. Her constitutions could not be clearer. The Missionaries of Charity are to give their free and whole lot of service to the poorest of the poor. That is why she founded her community. Mother Teresa lived in the real world in which most of the human race goes to bed hungry everyday. It was her deep love for these desperately poor people that inspired her to serve whatever needs they had. As she said, the deepest need of the poor is to know that someone loves them.

No Dependence on the Government. Mother Teresa would not accept one penny from the State for the widespread financial support that her apostolate needed. Behind this independence of the government was her deep conviction that financial dependence becomes financial enslavement. She wanted her Sisters to be totally free in caring for the poorest of the poor. This freedom, she was convinced, depended on relying entirely on the generosity of the people. She said more than once, "If ever people stop supporting the apostolate of the Missionaries of Charity, they will simply cease to exist."

Regularity in the Daily Order. Their daily life was strictly ordered. Rising in the morning at four-forty, on feast days at five-ten, was only the beginning of their regular routine. There are set times for prayer, set times for meals, set times for apostolic work. Needless to say this was only a pale reflection of Mother Teresa's own personal life. The result, however, was astounding. This regularity has produced extraordinary fruitfulness in the service of others. To this day most of their more than four thousand membership is from India. There is a remarkable relationship between poverty and regularity. Poor people, we might say, are trained by Divine Providence to live regulated lives.

Zeal for the True Faith. After some thirty-five years of serving the poorest of the poor, Mother Teresa was called to Rome by Pope John Paul II. He told her how deeply he appreciated what she was doing worldwide to relieve the poverty of so many people. But then he told her, "I would like to change your Constitutions. I want the Missionaries of Charity to become missionaries not only of poor bodies but also of poor souls." The Holy Father then told her to start catechizing and evangelizing. When Mother told the Pope that her Sisters were not trained for this apostolate, he told her, "train them!" Words cannot describe the impact which this had on the Missionaries of Charity. They have been phenomenally zealous and effective in teaching the true faith. Located in over one hundred countries throughout the world, I can honestly say they are now the largest missionary order in the world. But now, the word "missionary" has come to mean teaching the faith which God became man to reveal to the world.

Needless to say, the Sisters have not departed from their basic charism of serving the poorest of the poor. Their focus is still on the poor people, who not coincidentally, form most of the human race. But now the Missionaries of Charity combine two kinds of poverty, the poverty of the physically destitute and the poverty of those who are spiritually in the greatest need. Mother Teresa never forgot Christ's statement to His own Nazarenes, when He told them that He had come into the world to proclaim the Gospel to the poor.

Great Prudence. It is not surprising that Mother Teresa was gifted with an extraordinary prudence. She was divinely enlightened in this matter. When she had just opened the first house of the contemplative Sisters in New York City, she told the cardinal how deeply she appreciated his support of her community. Then she added, "However, I want to make sure that our Sisters have only the best priests in the Archdiocese as their chaplains, confessors, spiritual counselors and retreat directors." She had no illusions how indispensable are solid priests to direct the spiritual lives of her community.

Spirit of Prayer. One could go on for hours explaining one feature of Mother Teresa's spirituality after another. At the heart of everything she did, and of everything she achieved, was a deep, constant union with God. It was not coincidental that so many photos of Mother Teresa show her with a Rosary in her hand. This is not by chance. She literally lived in the presence of God and constantly depended on His supernatural assistance. It was from Him that she derived, as she said, all the light she had ever received to know what God wanted her to do. It was from Him that she received all the strength to do His will.

In one sentence, this might be a synthesis of the spirituality of Mother Teresa. All she ever wanted to do in life was the will of God. But she knew there was no other way to know what God wanted, every moment of the day, except by asking Him for the grace to know His divine will and then to do it with all her heart.
