Tour Guides: It is wonderful to see how many come, and from how far away, to see our beautiful cathedral. It is a great opportunity also to show hospitality to our visitors and to answer their questions about our faith. You just never know how many conversions might result. As our guides are well aware it is more important to show warm Christian hospitality than to get all the historical and architectural facts totally accurate; those they can read about; the warmth they have to experience first hand. Many thanks to all our guides: especially, Ellen Hawman the coordinator of the tour guides, & Jessie Chisholm, Nancy Cosgrove, Walter Durante, Trudi Gorski, Cathy Holland, Teresa Khidir, Bernie McDonald, Donna North, Nenette O'Donnell, Susan Overvelde and Fr. THE ARCHBISHOP'S CHARITY DINNER As you are well aware throughout the Roman Catholic world

Pope Francis has declared a Jubilee of Mercy; a year beginning last December 8th, 2015 and concluding November 20th, 2016. Throughout this special year of grace Pope Francis has encouraged us to focus on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy as the concrete means of the living out of our faith in Jesus Christ. The Corporal Works of Mercy are directed towards relieving the physical suffering of those in need by feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, giving shelter to the homeless, visiting the sick, visiting the imprisoned and burying the dead.

In this Jubilee of Mercy, Archbishop O'Brien, in a special way would like to highlight the corporal work of mercy of feeding the hungry through a fundraising charity dinner to be held at the Ambassador Hotel, Kingston, on November 17, 2016 beginning with a cocktail hour at 5:30 pm, dinner at 6:30 pm and entertainment concluding by 9:00 pm. The tickets for this event are $125 each, $75 of which are tax deductible. The proceeds of this dinner will be distributed among food banks in the Archdiocese of Kingston to assist them in their work of feeding the hungry. The Archdiocese of Kingston covers a territory from Trenton in the West to Morrisburg in the East and Ormsby, Lanark and Carleton Place in the North.

Archbishop O'Brien would like to invite each one of you to assist him in helping those in need. If you are interested in participating or would like more information and/or a registration form sent to you please contact Father Shawn at 613-546-5521 ext 4 or fathershawnjhughes@gmail.com. I am hoping we would have enough generosity to fill at least two tables from St. Mary's.

The Cathedral of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception:

Most Reverend Brendan M. O'Brien, Archbishop of Kingston

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF KINGSTON'S ANNUAL: RED MASS

Attention all Judges, lawyers, and all who work in the Justice system. On Thursday, September 22, 2016, Archbishop O'Brien will be celebrating the Red Mass at 7 pm in St Mary's Cathedral (Johnson St at Clergy) with a wine and cheese reception to follow in St. Mary's Parish Centre. The Red Mass, which is dedicated particularly to those in the legal profession (lawyers, judges, clerks, court reporters, court security officers, legal assistants, receptionists, and students and professors of the Faculty of Law), derives its name from the colour of the vestments worn by the celebrant to symbolize the tongues of fire of the Holy Spirit and martyrdom and is generally celebrated contemporaneously with the opening of the courts, which commences the judicial year. The tradition of the Red Mass was begun by Pope Innocent IV in 1243 for the Ecclesial Judicial Court asking the Invocation of the Holy Spirit as a source of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude and strength for the coming term of court. St. Thomas More is the patron saint of Lawyers. All who work in the justice system are most welcome and encouraged to attend the event. Everyone else is very welcome as well. Wine and cheese reception following in St. Mary's Parish Centre. If you require further information please contact Christina Rorabeck at 613-545-9896 or christina@blaisrorabeck.com or Father Shawn.
