This Saturday, May 13th We Celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Apparitions of Our Lady to the Three Shepherd Children in Fatima, Portugal.

The Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, appeared six times to three shepherds near the town of Fatima, Portugal between May 13 and October 13, 1917. Appearing to the children, the Blessed Virgin told them that she had been sent by God with a message for every man, woman and child living in our century. Coming at a time when civilization was torn asunder by war and bloody violence, she promised that Heaven would grant peace to all the world if Her requests for prayer, reparation and consecration were heard and obeyed.

"If My requests are granted ... there will be peace"

Our Lady of Fatima explained to the children that war is a punishment for sin and warned that God would further castigate the world for its disobedience to His Will by means of war, hunger and the persecution of the Church, the Holy Father and the Catholic Faithful. God's Mother prophesied that Russia would be God's chosen "instrument of chastisement," spreading the "errors" of atheism and materialism across the earth, fomenting wars, annihilating nations and persecuting the Faithful everywhere.

"If My requests are not granted, Russia will spread its errors throughout the world, raising up wars and persecutions against the Church. The good will be martyred, the Holy Father will suffer much and various nations will be annihilated."

In all her appearances at Fatima, the Blessed Mother repeatedly emphasized the necessity of praying the Rosary daily, of wearing the Brown Scapular of Mount Carmel and of performing acts of reparation and sacrifice. To prevent the terrible chastisement at the hands of Russia and to convert "that poor nation", Our Lady requested the solemn public Consecration of Russia to Her Immaculate Heart by the Pope and all the Catholic bishops of the world. She also asked that the Faithful practice a new devotion of reparation on the first Saturday of five consecutive months.

The heart of Our Lady's Message to the world is contained in what has come to be called the "Secret" which she confided to the three child seers in July 1917. The Secret actually consists of three parts, the first two of which have been publicly revealed. The first part of the Secret was a horrifying vision of hell "where the souls of poor sinners go" and contained an urgent plea from Our Lady for acts of prayer and sacrifice to save souls. The second part of the Secret specifically prophesied the outbreak of World War II and contained the Mother of God's solemn request for the consecration of Russia as a condition for world peace. It also predicted the inevitable triumph of Her Immaculate Heart following Russia's consecration and the conversion "of that poor nation" to the Catholic Faith. The last part of the secret was made public by Pope John Paul II in the year 2000.

In the third part of the vision of Fatima there is a "Bishop clothed in white" who prays for all the faithful. As he makes his way with great difficulty towards the Cross amid the corpses of those who were martyred (Bishops, priests, men and women Religious and many lay people), he too falls to the ground, apparently dead, under a hail of gunfire. This has been taken as a prophecy of the assassination attempt of Pope John Paul II on the 13th of May 1981. Pope John Paul II later said "it appeared evident that it was "a mother's hand that guided the bullet's path", enabling "the Pope in his throes" to halt "at the threshold of death" (Pope John Paul II, Meditation from the Policlinico Gemelli to the Italian Bishops, Insegnamenti, XVII, 1 [1994], 1061).

A NOTE FROM CHRIS Stefanick

The early Christians called themselves “the living ones.”

When I was in the 8th grade my parents dragged me to a retreat. It changed my life—which is why I've always been a fan of coerced religious experiences for kids! It wasn't the speakers or the music. I'm sure they were all great but I don't remember them. It was the people. I can still see the joy on their faces. And when I saw them I realized I was dead inside. I wanted what they had I remember one face in particular. I never actually met the guy. I just remember his beaming smile. He'll never know until heaven that his joy in the Lord is part of why I'm reaching millions of people today.

There's nothing more beautiful than a soul alive in Jesus Christ. As Pope Benedict XVI said, “The ultimate apologetic (that is, answers to people's questions about faith), is saints...” When we meet people who are truly alive—when we encounter saints—all our questions seem to fade. We just want what they have.
