HOSPITALITY SUNDAY - A VERY

SPECIAL THANK YOU! to the parishioners who provided delicious home baked goods and/ or supplies for Hospitality Sunday held on April 8: Anne and David Reid, Lois Furrrie, Lois Halligan, Anne Lanzo and Donna North. Many thanks to Bridget Fagan, Mary and Mark Hitchcock and John Palmer for helping with the set up and clean up. The next Hospitality Sunday will be held April 22 after both the 8 am and 10:30 am Masses.

GREAT MOVIES TO SEE!!! As you may know I don't go to a great number of movies. But while I was away I saw three, faith-based movies that were very, very good. Paul, the Apostle of Christ, deals with the last few weeks of St. Paul's life in the Mamartine Prison in Rome and the Early Christian Community in Rome of that time. I Can Only Imagine, is a true life story of tragedy, redemption, forgiveness, reconciliation and Faith. It is extremely powerful and moving. God is Not Dead 3, is the conflict between a University Campus and the Faith Based Community on Church as they haggle over the future of the Church Community that founded the university. Again a very powerful movie of forgiveness and reconciliation and living as true Christians. I highly recommend all three of these movies, especially in this Easter season.

St. John The Apostle Parish (88 Patrick St.) is having their Annual Ham Dinner which includes: potato, vegetable, rolls, dessert, tea and coffee on Tuesday April 24th at 5:30 pm in the basement of the church. ## Great Meditation in this Easter Season

From a sermon by
Saint Theodore the Studite (759-826 A.D.)
The precious and life-giving cross of Christ

How precious the gift of the cross, how splendid to contemplate! In the cross there is no mingling of good and evil, as in the tree of paradise: it is wholly beautiful to behold and good to taste. The fruit of this tree is not death but life, not darkness but light. This tree does not cast us out of paradise, but opens the way for our return.

This was the tree on which Christ, like a king on a chariot, destroyed the devil, the Lord of death, and freed the human race from his tyranny. This was the tree upon which the Lord, like a brave warrior wounded in his hands, feet and side, healed the wounds of sin that the evil serpent had inflicted on our nature. A tree once caused our death, but now a tree brings life. Once deceived by a tree, we have now repelled the cunning serpent by a tree. What an astonishing transformation! That death should become life, that decay should become immortality, that shame should become glory! Well might the holy Apostle exclaim: Far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world! (Galatians 6:14) The supreme wisdom that flowered on the cross has shown the folly of worldly wisdom's pride. The knowledge of all good, which is the fruit of the cross, has cut away the shoots of wickedness.

The wonders accomplished through this tree were foreshadowed clearly even by the mere types and figures that existed in the past. Meditate on these, if you are eager to learn. Was it not the wood of a tree that enabled Noah, at God's command, to escape the destruction of the flood together with his sons, his wife, his sons' wives and every kind of animal? (Genesis 7-9) And surely the rod of Moses prefigured the cross when it changed water into blood, (Exodus 7:20 ff) swallowed up the false serpents of Pharaoh's magicians, (Exodus 7:12) divided the sea at one stroke and then restored the waters to their normal course, drowning the enemy and saving God's own people? (Exodus 14) Aaron's rod, which blossomed in one day in proof of his true priesthood, (Numbers 17:8) was another figure of the cross, and did not Abraham foreshadow the cross when he bound his son Isaac and placed him on the pile of wood? (Genesis 22)

By the cross death was slain and Adam was restored to life. The cross is the glory of all the apostles, the crown of the martyrs, the sanctification of the saints. By the cross we put on Christ and cast aside our former self. By the cross we, the sheep of Christ, have been gathered into one flock, destined for the sheepfolds of heaven.

RESPONSORY

A tree of priceless value stands in the center of paradise;

— by his own death on this tree, our Savior overcame death for us, alleluia.

Among the cedars of the forest, this one surpasses all the others.

— By his own death on this tree, our Savior overcame death for us, alleluia.
