THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

On Easter Sunday, after the 10:30 am Mass Archbishop O'Brien commented to me how beautiful all the Liturgies were throughout Holy Week and the Triduum. I must agree and would like to thank everyone involved. Thank you to Jeff Moellman and St. Mary's Cathedral Choir for the very beautiful musical leadership. At the Mass of Chrism, Tenebrae, and the Liturgies of the Triduum were absolutely beautiful musically. Many thanks. All of you who attended the Liturgies of Holy Week know how stunningly beautiful the music was offered. Many comment that the choices were so exquisite and so beautifully presented. Thank you to all those who read at each of the liturgies. During one of the liturgies I had a surging pride and thought to myself that we have the best lectors I have heard in any of the parishes in which I have served and at any of the liturgies I have ever attended. Many thanks to you and Ann Lyng who organizes you. Thank you to all who have served as Extraordinary Ministers of the Most Holy Eucharist. Thank you to those who agreed to have a foot washed at the Mass of the Last Supper on Holy Thursday. Thank you to Janice Lumb who did the decorating and to Kevin J. Blaney Florists for the beautiful arrangements wreathes and flowers. A huge thank you to our servers, organized and led by Nick Beadle. You all did a great job this year. Thank you. Thank you to Ann Lyng, Mary and Mark Hitchcock who produced an absolutely beautiful reception after the Easter Vigil. And in a very special way to all the staff who always work so hard behind the scenes but especially during these Holy Days: our sacristan, Louise Meloche; our chef, Anjelina Howell; Ann Lyng our Coordinator of Pastoral Ministries, our custodian, Doug Snider; Jeff Moellman, our Director of Music and Organist, mentioned above; and last, but far from least, our parish office administrator, Suzanne Brown-Stevenson. A job very well done by all. I am deeply grateful. The Lord is Risen, Alleluia, Alleluia!

THE EIGHT DOORS OF THE KINGDOM: MEDITATIONS ON THE BEATITUDES

by Father Jacques Philippe

Using this great spiritual master's contemporary insights, Father Shawn will lead us through this beautiful meditation on the Beatitudes.

BEGINNING THIS TUES. AFTERNOONS: May.7th - May 28th from 3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

OR

BEGINNING WED. EVENINGS: May .8th TO MAY 29th from 7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

JACQUES PHILIPPE

MEDITATIONS ON THE BEATITUDES

The Gospel of St. Matthew shares with us Jesus' astonishing words that promise everlasting happiness. A promise far removed from the usual recipes for gratification. Blessed are the poor in spirit! Blessed are those who mourn! Happy are the meek!...Fr. Jacques shares with us a profound clarity to the full scope of meaning behind Christ's eight beatitudes, and in turn, outlines for us a way in which we can live them in our daily lives. We learn how each beatitude gives insight into how we can situate ourselves in an honest and fulfilling relationship with God, with oneself, and with others, and how to confront head-on the difficult realities of life.

To register and get your copy of Father Jacques's book ($20) please contact Ann Lyng at alyng@cogeco.ca or 613-5465-5521 ext.

From an Easter homily by Melito of Sardis, bishop

*The Easter praise of Christ
The Lamb that was slain for us.*

We should understand, beloved, that the paschal mystery is at once old and new, transitory and eternal, corruptible and incorruptible, mortal and immortal. In terms of the Law it is old, in terms of the Word it is new. In its figure it is passing, in its grace it is eternal. It is corruptible in the sacrifice of the lamb, incorruptible in the eternal life of the Lord. It is mortal in his burial in the earth, immortal in his resurrection from the dead.

The Law indeed is old, but the Word is new. The type is transitory, but grace is eternal. The lamb was corruptible, but the Lord is incorruptible. He was slain as a lamb; he rose again as God. He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, yet he was not a sheep. He was silent as a lamb, yet he was not a lamb. The type has passed away; the reality has come. The lamb gives place to God, the sheep gives place to a man, and the man is Christ, who fills the whole of creation. The sacrifice of the lamb, the celebration of the Passover, and the prescriptions of the Law have been fulfilled in Jesus Christ. Under the old Law, and still more under the new dispensation, everything pointed toward him.

Both the Law and the Word came forth from Zion and Jerusalem, but now the Law has given place to the Word, the old to the new. The commandment has become grace, the type a reality. The lamb has become a Son, the sheep a man, and man, God.

The Lord, though he was God, became man. He suffered for the sake of those who suffer, he was bound for those in bonds, condemned for the guilty, buried for those who lie in the grave; but he rose from the dead, and cried aloud: Who will contend with me? Let him confront me. I have freed the condemned, brought the dead back to life, raised men from their graves. Who has anything to say against me? I, he said, am the Christ; I have destroyed death, triumphed over the enemy, trampled hell underfoot, bound the strong one, and taken men up to the heights of heaven: I am the Christ.

Come, then, all you nations of men, receive forgiveness for the sins that defile you. I am your forgiveness. I am the Passover that brings salvation. I am the lamb who was immolated for you. I am your ransom, your life, your resurrection, your light, I am your salvation and your king. I will bring you to the heights of heaven. With my own right hand I will raise you up, and I will show you the eternal Father.
