175 Years of Living Stones

"Come to Him, a living Stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

1 Peter 2:4-5

This weekend we say good-bye to Jeffrey Moellman

Jeff has been the music director here at St. Mary's since Palm Sunday, 2017. We have had the pleasure of hearing the beautiful music he and the choir have produced in support of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and other liturgies. We are grateful for his great musical talent that he has used to assist in praising God over the past almost six years. Please be sure to say good-bye this weekend. Thank you Jeff and we wish you the very best in your future endeavours.

The Future of the Music Ministry at St. Mary's

Dear Parishioners,

I know you are saddened by the news of Jeff's departure. The choir has produced some stunningly beautiful music under Jeff's capable direction. I am also aware that this decision has left you in some confusion and with some questions. Mark Levac, the chairman of the Parish Finance Committee or myself would be happy to take a few minutes to respond to any questions you may have. I can be contacted at rector@stmaryscathedral.ca. Mark can be contacted at mark@levacsupply.com.

As Providence would have it, when the news was made public on Saturday, I received a very kind text from an extremely accomplished organist and choir director. Amazed at their kindness I arranged to meet with them. We discussed what an interim plan might look like. This interim plan is now in place for the foreseeable future, with some aspects still being worked out. Going forward this provides two things: in the immediate future we will continue to have the high-quality music direction and organ accompaniment, to which we have become accustomed, and it will afford us the time to begin a search for a new resident organist and music director.

Pursuing the obligation to fiscal responsibility to the parish, the new position will have considerably reduced time requirements than those of Jeff Moellman's contract.

The good news is, going forward, we will have music for all the Sunday and Holy Week liturgies and beyond. For the time being we will have to forego our usual celebration of Vespers on Solemnities and, Tenebrae during Holy Week.

God bless you all.
Father Shawn
