Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!

The Holy Week and Easter Liturgies were beautiful. Thank you to all our wonderful servers, coordinated by Nicholas Beadle. To all our wonderful lectors, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, and all those who consented to have their feet washed, coordinated by Ann Lyng. To our music director for Holy Week, Brent Nuevo and our wonderful cantors and choir. To all our wonderful decorators under the direction of Janice Lumb. To all who have provided the live-streaming tech support: Angela Gambin and Anne Hogarth. And an extra special thank you to all our wonderful staff who worked so diligently behind the scenes: Liz Guiney, our office manager, Domenic Sanfilippo, our sacristan, and Juliet Trolio, our Coordinator of Evangelisation. I am deeply grateful to God for each and every one of you in your generosity to St. Mary's. May the Joy of the Risen Lord be with each of you always.

175 Years of Living Stones

"Come to Him, a living Stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 2:4-5

If you are interested in having this beautiful statue in your home for a week, we have a few weeks available in May and June.

Please contact Liz at the parish office, 613-546-5521 ext. 3, officemanager@stmaryscathedral.ca for specific dates.

Rosaries for Students Initiative

Do you have a surplus of rosaries in your house that you are not using? Have you been holding on to them for when you can give them to someone? Well, now is your chance.

Many Queen's students don't know where to find rosaries, nor do many of them have much money to buy some. However, many of us have extra rosaries lying around the house that would be better used in the hands of a student than in the back of a drawer.

St. Mary's Knights of Columbus Council #728 will collect any unused rosaries and donate them to the Newman House Catholic Chaplaincy at Queen's University to be given out to students.

If you have rosaries you would like to donate, please bring them to Mass and place them in the collection basket over the next couple of Sundays.

Many thanks in advance for your generosity.
