Serious Oversight Corrected

On Ontario Street there is a sign indicating the direction and distance of all Museums, Art Galleries and Historic Sites. However, up until very recently, St. Mary's Cathedral was conspicuously absent. After two years of determined effort and lobbying Richard Lumb, life long proud Kingstonian and proud parishioner of St. Mary's Cathedral, has successfully managed to have St. Mary's Cathedral added to the sign.

Many, many thanks to Richard for his pride in St. Mary's and determination in getting this oversight corrected.

St. Mary's is the third from the top on the right.

BEATITUDES FOR FATHERS

Blessed the father who takes time to watch his children grow because that time will never come again.

Blessed the father who teaches his children the value of independence because he will not live forever.

Blessed the father who helps his children discover who they are because they are the future of the world.

blessed the father who is generous with encouragement and tenderness because they are irreplaceable.

Blessed the father who can admit his mistakes before his children because he teaches them the value of forgiveness.

Blessed the father who loves wisely, at times saying yes, at other times no, because love like the sky is not always the same colour.

Blessed the father who knows how to sit close to God, to listen to him and welcome his words because this is how he learns from the source of all fatherhood.

Blessed the father who is faithful to his beliefs, his values and traditions because they are his legacy to his children.

Blessed the father who has the respect and love of his children because, through them he can experience God's goodness.

God bless.
