Prayer for the Pope

O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful,
look favourably on your servant Leo XIV, whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd;
grant, we pray, that by word and example he may be of service to those over whom he presides
so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care,
he may come to everlasting life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE PILGRIMAGE TO THE CANADIAN MARTYRS' SHRINE IN MIDLAND, ONTARIO

To celebrate the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope, St. Mary's Cathedral is planning an overnight pilgrimage to the Canadian Martyrs' Shrine and Ste. Marie Among the Hurons in Midland, Ontario, July 24 to July 25, 2025.

The bus will leave St. Joseph's Church at 9 am on Thursday, July 24, 2025. Upon arrival in Midland, we will check in at our hotel before heading to Ste. Ignace II, the martyrdom site of the Jesuits, to participate in Holy Mass celebrated by Father Shawn plus prayers and time for personal reflections. Then we will dine at Restaurant Ste. Marie before experiencing the Shadows and Stone guided evening tours of the 17th century reconstructed village of Ste. Marie Among the Hurons. Friday July 25 is a full day at the Canadian Martyrs' Shrine which houses the relics of the martyrs. Space is limited, please reserve early to avoid disappointment of what promises to be a very prayerful and faith-filled pilgrimage. To reserve your spot please contact Ann Lyng at ann@stmaryscathedral.ca or 613-546-5521 ext.5

Trip down Memory Lane

Ordination Day, May 27, 2000 A.D.

Deacon Brent Brennan and myself are prostrated on the floor, expressing our absolute powerlessness to carry out the ministry entrusted to us solely with human power and understanding. The Litany of the Saints is sung as the whole Christian community prays for the mercy of the Holy Trinity and the support of the saints in Heaven for our priestly ministry.

The Moment of Ordination Laying On of Hands and the Prayer of Ordination

In the ancient tradition of the Church, the sacrament of Holy Orders is conferred by the laying on of hands, by the Bishop followed by all priests present in silence, followed by a solemn prayer of consecration.

This is Bishop Boissoneau, Auxiliary Bishop of Toronto; then Monsignor Boissoneau, then the rector of St. Augustine's Seminary in Toronto.

Vesting With Stole and Chasuble

The newly ordained priest rises and is vested with the Stole and Chasuble, sign of the priestly office and the charity (love) with which it must be exercised.

Anointing of Hands

The newly ordained priest has his hands anointed with Chrism to celebrate the Mysteries of the Lord. The anointing of the hands signifies the Priests' own participation in the Priesthood of Christ.

Kiss of Peace

This is the final gesture in the rite of ordination. The Archbishop and all priests who are present offer the newly ordained an outward embrace as a sign of their unity. With the fraternal kiss, the Archbishop places a kind of seal on the admittance of his new co-workers into their ministry; with a fraternal kiss, the Priests welcome the newly ordained to the common ministry within their order.

(This is Father John Brennan, my home pastor at the time, giving me the embrace of Peace. That is Father Brian McNally to the left in the picture and that is Bishop McGratten, Bishop of Calgary, then Rector of St. Peter's Seminary in London, where Father Brent Brennan studied.)

Pictures After:

The Hughes Men!

My father and my 5 brothers:

From Left to Right: David, # 1; Kim, # 3, me, #4, Dad, Jody, #5, Jamie, #2 and Tommy, # 6.

My dear mother had died five years earlier so she had the best seat in the cathedral. God rest her soul.

MY FIRST MASS WAS HELD AT MY HOME PARISH IN SACRED HEART OF JESUS, MARMORA.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Giving my dear father Holy Communion. The little girl server is my niece Chantelle Hughes, now married with two boys of her own.

Deacons and Priest concelebrants at my first Mass.

First consecration and elevation.

With Father John Brennan after my first Mass. Father Brennan was the pastor of Sacred Heart of Jesus at the time. Since then he has been a great spiritual support as a priest, mentor, guide and friend.

PLEASE PRAY FOR ME:

Lord, I praise You for the gift of the priesthood. Watch over Father Shawn and grant him the grace to be always faithful to You. May he love and serve our parish with a heart like St. John Vianney's, the patron saint of priests, burning with love of You and love of his flock. Amen.
